25	On April 20, 2006, Petitioner Stacey Ann	n Maspero ("Maspero") filed a petition for
26	reinstatement ("petition") of employment, management or control of an escrow agent, which
27	Petitioner was barred from effective January 13, 2003, pursuant to an Order barring Maspero from
28	any position of employment, management or control of any escrow agent. This Order was issued pursuant to the Commissioner's Decision to adopt the December 16, 2002 Proposed Decision of the Administrative Law Judge ("Proposed Decision") on January 13, 2003. The petition and written argument having been considered, this agency finds that:

Petitioner is not entitled to reinstatement of employment, management or control of an escrow agent for the following reasons:

- 1. In the Proposed Decision, the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") determined that Maspero lacked credibility regarding her testimony for why she failed to disclose her past conviction on the Statement of Identity and Employment Application ("Application") Wilshire Escrow Company ("Wilshire") submitted to the Department of Corporations, which was completed and signed by Maspero under penalty of perjury. Maspero claimed that she did not disclose her past conviction by mistake due to her negligence and ignorance in not reading the question carefully and still maintains this position in her petition. The ALJ determined that Maspero was unfit to work as an escrow assistant, among other reasons, because negligence and ignorance are unacceptable characteristics of representatives in the escrow industry.
- 2. Petitioner has been barred a little more than three years as of the date of the petition. Insufficient time has passed to determine proper rehabilitation given the nature of the violations.
- 3. The only proof of rehabilitation the Petitioner offers are her own self-serving statements, including that she is a very honest person with high standards and good morals. The only evidence submitted in support of this are letters from two previous employers: 1) one employer Maspero worked with in 1989 through 1996; and 2) the November 25, 2002 letter from Wilshire that Maspero was unable to admit as evidence at the Administrative Hearing. There is no outside, independent corroborating evidence. Moreover, the two letters reflect Maspero's behavior during employment in the past and prior to her bar from the escrow industry. No current evidence of rehabilitation has been provided.
- 4. Petitioner has attempted no education or other form of assistance that could have benefited her in a rehabilitation process or otherwise demonstrated that she possesses the skills, knowledge and integrity necessary to prevent violations of the escrow law.

1	5.	Petitioner ha	as not accepted full responsibility for her failure to disclose her
2	past conviction and is still making excuses for her behavior.
3	WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that the Petition be denied.
